

REFUND POLICY

Rexcel Training is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015. As such, Rexcel Training is required to have and provide detail of a fair and reasonable refund process.

The purpose of this policy and related procedure is to provide all students, employers and staff with information:

- On the ability to apply for a refund of course fees in certain circumstances.
- To keep advance payments of fees to a minimum ($1,500 for Students) and hence reduce the financial risks and service standards.

Policy Principles

The following principles underpin this policy:

Rexcel training's Refund Policy and Refund Application Form are made publicly available, on our website.

Payments of all refunds are made within 2 weeks (14 days working days) of application for refund.

With regard to all withdrawals, prior to processing refund applications, Rexcel Training will firstly encourage the student to:

- Continue with their enrolment by providing the Learning with additional learning support.
- Defer the course to a later date.

Written notification of withdrawal from a course must be provided by a student to apply for a refund of a course. This may be via letter or email but must also include the withdrawal/deferral form along with the refund request form.

There is no refund applicable for Students who do not gain competency after completing assessment.

Rexcel Training will provide a full refund to all Students, should there be a need for Rexcel Training to cancel a course. In the first instance Rexcel Training will (where possible) provide an opportunity for the student to attend another scheduled course.

If Rexcel Training cancels a course, Students do not have to apply for a refund; Rexcel Training will process the refunds automatically.

Refunds for cancellation of enrolments are granted based on the information provided in the table below.

An initial non-refundable administration fee of $250 will apply to all courses.

When a student and/or employer have made an advanced payment for the delivery of a non-accredited course/workshop(s) and they cancel 7 working days prior to the commencement of the course/workshop(s), a full refund less the administration fee will be provided within 20 working days of notifying Rexcel Training of your cancellation to attend the course, and between 3 and 7 working days of the course commencement date, 50% of the fee will be refunded, less the administration fee.

Cancellations within 2 working days from the course commencement date or non-attendance on Day 1 will attract a 100% cancellation fee of the total course fee being charged.

If the Student commences the course and then withdraws after attending 1 day of the course, this will result in the full cancellation fee being applied, unless the student can provide evidence of extreme personal hardship or medical condition.

Should a student wish to finalise incomplete unit of competencies in a future course, the original fee payment can be used as credit towards that course within 6 months of initial payment.

If a student wishes to change his/her enrolment to another course delivered concurrently with the enrolled course, the fees paid will be transferable to the new course. A second administration fee will not be charged.

The RTO Compliance Manager must be notified of all course cancellations.

Rexcel Training reserves the right to suspend or cancel an enrolment because of:

- Failure to pay an amount the student and/or employer was liable to pay.
- The student has demonstrated a behaviour unacceptable to Rexcel Training, including but not limited to behaviour as described in the Plagiarism, Cheating and Collusion Policy-Procedure; no refund of tuition fees is payable.

All course fees include up to 3 attempts at successfully completing a Unit of Competency. The student and/or employer will be requested to pay a fee of $100 if a third attempt is required for the student to be deemed competent.

If the employer decides to cancel a traineeship during the course at a point during a quarterly period, they will still need to make a service payment for the trainee; after this payment no further payments will be required.

Once the employer has provided the RTO Administration Officer with written cancellation advice and an Application for Refund Form, the following documentation will be, forwarded to, the finance department:

- The written notification from the employer (email, fax, post).
- Completed Application for Refund Form.

An EFT payment will be forwarded to the employer, once the Finance Department has determined the refund amount for the employer with a covering letter stating the amount of refund.

Rexcel Training may, arrange for another course, or part of a course to be provided to the student at no extra cost as an alternative to refunding course fees. Where the Student agrees to this arrangement, Rexcel Training will not be liable to refund the money owed to the student for the original enrolment.

For Government subsidised (traineeships) or Fee-for-Service Students:

A once off course fee payment arrangement will be negotiated with the employer and confirmed in writing i.e. a Service Level Agreement.

The payment of the initial Administration Fee is non-refundable.

Rexcel Training will provide a refund (less the administration fee) if they are unable to deliver the course for which the original enrolment and payment (Administration Fee) has been made.

If the employer decides to cancel the traineeship before course commencement – steps 1 through to 10 apply.
